

Lorrie L. Green

Corporate Paralegal | lorrie.green@fmjlw.com

FMJ corporate paralegal, Lorrie Green, has more than twenty years of legal experience assisting clients with real estate, bankruptcy and corporate formation matters. Lorrie has previously worked as a paralegal for national law firms and corporations.

Education:

University of Minnesota (Liberal Arts)
Inver Hills Community College (AA and Paralegal Certification)

Practice Areas:

General Corporate & Business
Mergers & Acquisitions
Commercial Real Estate
Commercial Aviation
Business Aviation

Practice Philosophy:

"It is my desire to provide each client with the best service possible."

The Rest of the Story:

Lorrie lives in Chanhassen with her two young adult children, Nate (22) and Brittany (20). Nate and Brittany are both currently attending Normandale Community College. Lorrie enjoys spending time with her family and friends, running her jewelry business and attending church with her friends and brother.

Power of the Big.
Spirit of the Small.