

Jesse J. Klick

Associate | jesse.klick@fmjlaw.com

Jesse Klick practices in the General Corporate & Business group at FMJ, where he represents companies and investors in entity selection and formation, business transactions, mergers and acquisitions, and general corporate matters. Additionally, Jesse represents lenders and borrowers in connection with commercial lending and financing transactions, including asset-based lending and commercial real estate, as well as advising clients on commercial contracts.

With both law firm and corporate experience, Jesse leverages his diverse legal and business knowledge to provide clients with legal solutions that also fit their business needs. Jesse began his legal career working for a Twin Cities-based international law firm focusing on complex commercial financing transactions. Most recently, he was the sole legal counsel at a closely-held software company.

Practice Philosophy:

"I believe it is imperative to understand my client's business to truly offer exceptional legal service. This allows me to provide the company with a contract that meets its business needs and works within the company's business processes. It also allows me to structure a transaction to effectively meet the best interests of my clients."

The Rest of the Story:

Jesse lives in Minnetonka with his wife Jessica and loves the short commute to the office. He enjoys spending time outdoors, particularly running, and boating on Lake Minnewaska in the summer. As the fall leaves begin to change, Jesse also enjoys pheasant hunting.
